

Dr. Sazida Begum, currently pursuing PGDHM in healthcare management, enrolled as a 1st year student (Batch 2020-2022) in IIHMR DELHI.

She has expertise in public health, dental health, leadership, training, contributing and motivation necessary to carry out the proposed research project. She has served as a dental health advisor in corporate health organisation and a health volunteer and educator in non-governmental organisations. Her area of interest is research for new health insights and innovative solutions to health problems, is always my domain of concern.